PRINCIPLE 2: STRUCTURE THE BOARD TO ADD VALUE

A listed entity should have a board of an appropriate size, composition, skills and commitment to enable it to discharge its duties effectively.

Corporate Governance Statement

RECOMMENDATION 2.1: The board of a listed entity should:

- a. have a nomination committee which:
 - (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and
 - (2) is chaired by an independent director;and disclose:
 - (3) the charter of the committee;
 - (4) the members of the committee; and
 - (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or
- b. if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.

The Company's Practice:

Given the Company's current size and stage of development, it is not considered necessary to have a separate Nomination Committee. The Board as a whole will identify candidates and assess their skills in deciding whether an individual has the potential to add value to the Company. The Board may also seek independent advice to assist with the identification process.

The Nomination Committee Policy has been adopted by the Board which provides for the proper assessment of prospective directors and includes, but is not limited to, their relevant experience and achievements, compatibility with other Board members, credibility within the Company's scope of activities, and intellectual and physical ability to undertake Board duties and responsibilities.

RECOMMENDATION 2.2: A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.

The Company's Practice:

The Board considers that the composition of the existing Board is appropriate given the scope and size of the Company's operations and the skills matrix of the existing Board members, however, the Board does not consider it necessary to maintain a Board "skills matrix" at this stage of the Company's development.

The skills, experience and expertise of each of the Company's Directors are set out in the Directors' Report of the Annual Report.

RECOMMENDATION 2.3: A listed entity should disclose:

- a. the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors;
- b. if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in the ASX Principles but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and
- c. the length of service of each director.

The Company's Practice:

The Board considers Mr Brett Lawrence, Mr Tim Wise and Mr Stuart Baker to be independent Directors of the Company. Ms Gema Gerelsaikhon is not considered independent given her close family relationship to Mr. Tsetsen Zantav, the Company's major shareholder. Mr Lawrence was Managing Director until 15 February of 2022 but has little to do with day to day operations and is therefore now considered an independent director.

The length of service of each director is as follows:

RECOMMENDATION 2.5: The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the Chief Executive Officer of the entity.

The Company's Practice:

The Company does not currently have a formally appointed Chairman at this stage of development of the Company and often Mr Brett Lawrence will often undertake the role of Chairman when needed.

RECOMMENDATION 2.6: A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.

The Company's Practice:

The Board regularly and informally reviews whether the Directors as a group have the skills, knowledge and familiarity with the Company and its operating environment requirement to fulfil their role on the Board effectively. If any gaps are identified, the Board will consider what training or development could be undertaken to fill those gaps.

Where necessary, the Company will provide resources to help develop and maintain the Directors' skills and knowledge.

RECOMMENDATION 3.4: A listed entity should:

- a) have and disclose an anti-bribery and corruption policy; and
- b) ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that policy.

The Company's Practice:

The Company encourages the reporting of suspected unethical, illegal, corrupt, fraudulent or undesirable conduct involving its business. High standards of ethical behaviour and compliance with laws and regulations are essential to protecting the reputation and long-term success. The Company is aware that any incident of Bribery or Corruption involving, or relating to, the Company could give rise to material adverse legal consequences and would cause damage to its reputation, impede business growth and potentially affect the share price.

PRINCIPLE 4: SAFEGUARD INTEGRITY IN CORPORATE REPORTING

A listed entity should have formal and rigorous processes that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting.

RECOMMENDATION 4.1: The board of a listed entity should:

- a. have an audit committee which:
 - (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and
 - (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board,and disclose:
 - (3) the charter of the committee;
 - (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and
 - (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or
- b. if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.

The Company's Practice:

The Board considers that due to the current size and scope of operations of the Company, it does not merit the establishment of a separate audit committee. Until the situation changes the Board carries out any necessary audit committee functions.

The Board meets on a regular basis and discusses matters normally captured under the terms of reference of an audit committee, being company risk, controls and general and specific financial matters.

The appointment and removal of the Company's external auditor is subject to approval of the Board and the security holders, and the Company's current external auditors rotate the relevant audit engagement partner every five (5) years.

RECOMMENDATION 4.2: The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance

The Company's Practice:

The Company ensures that a declaration is issued by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Controller in accordance with the abovementioned requirement.

RECOMMENDATION 4.3: A listed entity should disclose its process to verify the integrity of any periodic corporate report it releases to the market that is not audited or reviewed by an external auditor.

The Company's Practice:

The Company reports periodically as required by the ASX Listing Rules. These periodic reports are generally prepared by qualified accounting staff and reviewed by both the Chief Financial Officer and the Board prior to their release to the market. The process to ensure accuracy includes standard accounting practices such as reconciliation of cash and general ledger reports. Detailed accounting policies and procedures are disclosed in the Company's annual report.
